Re: Campaign Endorsement

Dear Kyle,

The Washington Small Business Council (WSBC)—Building North Central Washington’s Political Action Committee—has voted to endorse your campaign for Douglas County Commissioner, District #2.

Building North Central Washington (BNCW) and our member companies are passionate about protecting private property rights, promoting sound economic development, as well as ensuring that the communities throughout Douglas County are vibrant, strong, and that the quality of life we all value is protected.

BNCW recognizes that there are many challenges and opportunities facing Douglas County right now and into the near future. Engaged, effective leadership is essential in order to navigate these challenges, while helping to pave the way for opportunities that will bring economic development to Douglas County.

Kyle, the WSBC believes that your strong principles, vision, and common sense approach will provide you with a unique perspective that makes you the best candidate for this exceptional responsibility. We’re proud to offer our endorsement of your campaign and invite you to utilize our organization’s endorsement of your candidacy as your campaign sees fit.

We look forward to your election and service to the citizens of Douglas County, sir!

Most Sincerely,
